

SDSU Dean David Pearson and the Center for Energy
Sustainability at the SDSU – Imperial Valley Campus
Invite you to a Public Lecture

Concentrating Solar Thermal: A Worldwide
Update

Dr. Manuel Blanco

Manuel J. Blanco, Ph.D., Dr. Engr., is Chair of SolarPACES, an international organization under the umbrella of the International Energy Agency responsible for the development of solar thermal power technologies and the solar-assisted manufacture of fuels and chemicals. He is also Research Group Leader for Solar Thermal Energy Technology for CSIRO, the Australian National Science Agency, and immediate past Director of the Solar Thermal Energy Department of CENER, the National Renewable Energy Center in Pamplona, Spain.

- Date: Tuesday, September 24 2013
- Time: 2:00-3:30 PM
- Location: Alan and Debbie Gold Auditorium, SDSU BioScience Center
- Students, Staff, Faculty and the Public are invited.
- Contact: jcrockett@foundation.sdsu.edu for more information