NIH GRANT WRITING TRAINING

Having trouble landing an NIH grant? Preparing to write your first R01 or R-series submission, or the first in a while?

Join Dr. Meg Bouvier for a half-day presentation that will help you write a sophisticated, polished Research Strategy that is responsive to the latest NIH trends and policies. This highly interactive presentation is packed with tips, templates, strategies, and samples from recently-funded NIH submissions. It will improve not just a single submission, but all of your submissions going forward.

Light refreshments will be served.

Dr. Meg Bouvier has helped clients land over $320 million in federal funding. She currently supports 4 of the top-5 ranked hospitals; 4 of the top-6 cancer hospitals; and 2 of the top-3 ranked medical schools for research in the country. She has deep knowledge of NIH, having worked as a staff writer for current NIH Director, Dr. Francis Collins, when he directed the Human Genome Project and NHGRI. Prior to that, she was a post-doctoral fellow at NINDS, and received her PhD in Biomedical Sciences from the Mount Sinai School of Medicine. She has owned Meg Bouvier Medical Writing, LLC since 2007.
