

CoE

Pillars of the Profession

CoE PILLARS (values)

Integrity

- Participate only in honest endeavors
- Uphold the standards and the principles of my profession
- Engage in and promote fair dealing
- Recognize ethical and professional responsibilities

Purpose

- Take pride in and uphold obligation to profession
- Foster transformative ideas utilizing critical thinking skills
- Contribute to teams that promote leadership, inclusivity, goals and efficiency.

Humanity

- Cultivate Equitable and Inclusive environments
- Encourage Mutual Respect and Tolerance
- Embrace an international perspective

Society

- Serve humankind by respectfully utilizing Earth's treasured wealth
- Contribute my expertise to the benefit of society
- Design innovative, sustainable solutions that consider health, safety, welfare, cultural, global, social, economic, and environmental factors
 - OR
 - Design innovative, sustainable solutions that meet human and societal needs

Sources: CoE Mission/Vision statement, ABET, Order of the Engineer

Pillars Timeline

Student/Staff Input

- Talk with CESC Leaders & CSSE stud staff
- Survey/Talk with Staff
- NSO - Emphasize importance of ethics, etc as introductory to Pillars

Present revised Pillars

- At Faculty and Staff Meetings
- Finalize Pillars
- If possible, present toward end of fall in E101

